

Postgraduate Curriculum, Department of Pediatric Medicine

First Year:

Practical and clinical skills. Attitudes including communication skills.
Providing history, clinical findings on receiving the patients and management of patients admitted indoors.
Demonstrate skills in documentation of individual case details as well morbidity and mortality data.

Second Year:

Training in research methodology.
Thesis approval
Emergency and ICU Posting
Demonstrate components in basic concepts of research methodology and epidemiology and be able to critically analyze relevant published research literatures.

Third Year

Theoretical knowledge
Rotatory residency program in various subspecialties.
Develop skills in using education methods and techniques as applicable to the teaching of medical/nursing students and para medical health workers.
Demonstrate empathy and human approach towards patients and their families and exhibit interpersonal behavior in accordance with the social norms and expectation.
Diagnose and manage majority of the conditions in the specialty concerned on the basis of clinical assessment and appropriately selected and conducted investigations.

Weekly Classes:

Monday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Case discussion – Professor/ Senior Professor
Tuesday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Journal Club
Wednesday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Case discussion – Professor/ Senior Professor
Thursday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Seminar
Friday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Case discussion – Professor/ Senior Professor
Saturday	Morning 8am – 9am Afternoon 1pm – 2pm	Case discussion – Assistant Professor/ Associate Professor Theory class by Faculty